IMPORTANT - Please ensure your insurance is sufficient at all times

BDI Insurance provides compensation towards the cost of frames and foundation following destruction under a Bee Destruction Order issued by a Ministry Inspector. All colonies must be insured at the time of the inspection for a claim to be considered by BDI. Please ensure you have sufficient cover at all times during the year. Contact the membership Secretary to pay the additional premium before adding colonies. Payments made after 31st March will not be operative for insurance purposes until 40 days after the payment date.

The number of colonies insured will be shown on your BDI certificate which you will receive and which also confirms your membership of Pembrokeshire Beekeepers' Association.

The certificate will be required in the event of a claim, please keep it in a safe place.
